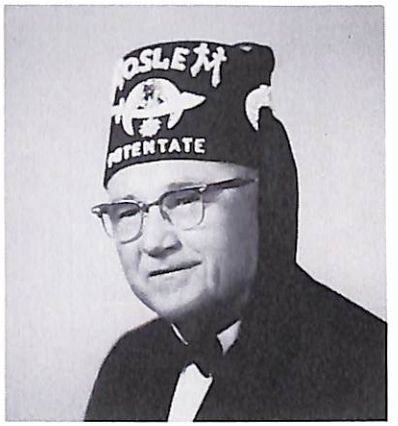
Potentate's Message



F. RAYMOND DASHER
Illustrious Potentate

To Our Nobles:

Welcome Nobles and ladies of Moslem Temple to the 1966 Imperial Session A.A.O.N.M.S. here in beautiful San Francisco.

Of necessity, this message had to be written in advance of our pilgrimage, but I am so confident in the nobility of Moslem Temple that in anticipation of the splendid showing that I know the Uniformed Units will make in both the day parade and night parade I can here express my heartfelt gratitude. I extend the same appreciation to all others of our truly great Temple who have been and will be working with dedication and devotion to make the stay of all most enjoyable and rewarding.

May the blessings of Allah be many and manifold, your journey home safe and the memories of this trip pleasant through the years of the future.

Yours in the Faith,

F. Raymond Dasher

The Fez

Courtesies and Etiquette

At all official Shrine functions Nobles wearing the Fez are deemed to be in uniform, and should render salutes and honors in the accredited military fashion.

The Right hand military salute is given by Nobles wearing the Fez: to the Colors when presented, or passing on parade; (If the colors pass and repass the same area the salute is given only once); to the playing or singing of the National Anthem, executing the salute on the first note, and holding until final note is sounded. (Please note The National Anthem is the STAR SPANGLED BANNER and is the only song in America entitled to the salute.)

At prayer, invocations, Benedictions, etc., The Fez is removed by right hand and held over the left breast. Inside Churches the Fez is never worn except in an official formation as escort.

The Pledge of Allegiance. Nobles wearing the Fez execute the right hand military salute from beginning to end. All salutes are executed without command, but should be done smartly and in unison.

THE FEZ SHOULD NEVER be placed on a table when and where food is being served.

NOBLES UNCOVERED

For the Pledge of Allegiance, place the right hand over the heart. For the National Anthem stand at attention. If covered (civilian) remove hat and hold over heart.

THE FLAG DISPLAYED

Must be on a staff, never draped and placed at the Flag's own right. If at a banquet to the right of the speaker. Only in church does the flag take position on the left, i.e. inside the Chancel. If outside the Chancel, the Flag takes its position on its own right.

Authority, Public Law 829, Chap. 806, second session of Joint Resolutions of both houses of the 77th Congress.

The Pledge of Allegiance, by Imperial Council Order with the approval of the State Department, because Shriners come from every country in the world, amended the Pledge to read as follows: I pledge allegiance to my Flag, and to the country for which it stands. One nation under God indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

"A man never stands so straight as when he bends to help
a Crippled Child."
